Define goals for industry

Compatibility is the key to industrial development in Antioch, stressed Dan Dugenske, president of Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry and member of the Industrial Development Committee at the general membership meeting June 24.

Compatibility, not competition, with existing industries, the retail sector, local government and the residential sector "is the Chamber's position as a board," he said.

The general membership get-together at the Windjammer restaurant on Rte. 173 focused on the industrial climate in Illinois as it applies to the Antioch area. Guest speakers Bob Fletcher, director of public affairs for the Illinois Dept. of Commerce and Community Affairs, and Diane Schneider and Dick Durkin of the Division of Government and Community Services, presented the several dozen Chamber members attending with an overview of the state of Illinois industry and some advice on starting programs to attract more industry to Antioch.

"THE ECONOMIC WELFARE of any community is related to industrial development and the creation of a proper climate for retention of industry and future development," said Bill Brook of State Bank of Antioch in introducing the trio of speakers.

As far as the state is concerned, the total climate is good, said Fletcher. Except for Pennsylvania, Illinois is the leader of the northeast section of the nation in regard to energy; Illinois is the number one state in regard to transportation; few areas can match Illinois in desirable industrial location; and Illinois "has an edge other states can't match" in regard to a skilled work force, Fletcher said.

UNBRIDLED OPTIMISM should be the attitude," Fletcher emphasized. Illinois' triple A bond rating is another indicator of its economic health, he added.

Fletcher said the recently-formed Illinois Dept. of Commerce and Community Affairs is a merger of three departments: that of Business and Economic Affairs, Local Government Affairs and the Governor's Office of Manpower and Human Development. "To compete successfully, we have to have all our resources brought together," he said in explaining the merger.

The combination of resources is important not only to the state, but also to municipalities such as Antioch, Chamber members learned.

"We don't tell you what to do or how to do it at first," Chamber members were told. "The first step is to sit among yourselves and ask where is it that Antioch wants to go—and how fast?"

"THE CHAMBER HAS taken the initial steps in working out Antioch's future," Durkin said. "And we plan to work with both the Chamber and the municipality. You have to create a zoning and building in-

State Bank administration to be by Antioch Holding Co.

by GLORIA DAVIS

According to William Brook, president of the Antioch State Bank, there will be a change in ownership of the bank by the first of the year.

The formation of the Antioch Holding Co. has taken place, headed by John Madden and B.T. (Mike) Reidy, with Brook accepting stock in the holding company in lieu of cash.

Since the holding company must acquire 80 percent of the bank's stock, an offer of $80 per share has been approved and recommended by the bank's board of directors, and has been made to all the share holders of the State Bank.

The holding company is now in process of acquiring the needed shareholdings.

After serving as the bank's president for 46 years, Brook, who is now 65, says, "Now that the area is no longer a simple rural agricultural one, with the society becoming more complex by the day and with the rapid growth and change of industry taking place, I have felt for a long time that there is need for greater sophistication and expertise at the State Bank."

He continued, "In order to carry on the leadership and provide the community service for which this bank is well known, I feel younger, aggressive and expert top level people are needed."

"Mike Reidy and John Madden have the ability, character and in fact they've got it all."

Brook went on to say that he has known both men, individually and collectively, for fifteen years.

Madden is a former examiner with the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp., presently involved in bank management.

Reidy is a former officer of the Northern Trust Co. and presently president of a bank similar to the State Bank.

"I have been asked and plan to remain active with the bank as it's president and board chairman for about 10 years," Brook continued.

He went on to say that he anticipated no change in personnel and that the same board of directors will exist as it does now.

Wilton might run for mayor!

When asked about his future political activities, Robert Wilton, ex-mayor of Antioch, answered, "There's a very good possibility that I will run. I'll have more to say about that later."

All mayoral candidates must file with the village clerk by January, 1981 for the April 1981 election.

Wilton, a lifelong Antioch resident, who was running the family business, Wilton Electric while he served as mayor from 1973 to 1977, did not run for re-election in 1977 because he was moving to Mundelein.

He moved back to Antioch in the fall of 1979 and is presently operating his own tv antenna and appliance repair business.

Planners okay annexation

The Antioch Planning Commission met on Wednesday, June 25 and the first order of business was the approval of the annexation of the property owned by Alfred and Florence Peterson.

The commission then approved a move to suspend time element requirements in order to expedite action on a request made by Richard Curtis for a zoning change, from rural residential to highway commercial, on lots 12, 13 and 14, units 1 and 2, in Sunny Acres.

Chairman Tony Starcevic was then directed by the commission to send a letter advising Paul Gerst, chairman of the Planning and Zoning and Building Committee of the Lake County Board of their approval of Curtis' request for rezoning.

The first city directory ever printed in Antioch is off the press and delivery to downtown business places and offices was made this afternoon. Deliveries to residences and outlying places will be made within the next few days.

Injuries sustained by Mrs. Clara Westlake, Antioch, when she fell on the slippery sidewalk in front of Kresge's store, Waukegan in January resulted in a damage suit for $10,000. Mrs. Westlake was walking south on Genesee Street when she fell on a sloping part of the sidewalk, and she blames the city of Waukegan for the slippery and dangerous condition of the walk. The woman was painfully hurt and was unable to leave her sick bed for many weeks.

Mrs. Francis H. Williams yesterday arrived in Lake County from New York to carry on the struggle to retain property in the Cordingly Subdivision at Cedar Lake. When no answer had been filed with Master-in-Chancery Okel Fuqua, it was thought that the feud between Geo. Cordingly, the spiritualist, and Francis H. Williams had been concluded. However, the battle over the three lots was revived when Mrs. Williams appeared. Cordingly contends the property was obtained by Williams through questionable deeds.

Fire of unknown origin late yesterday destroyed the residence of Albert Hanke in North Antioch just west of the North End grocery. Faulty electric wiring was given as a possible cause of the fire.

Wm. Snyder and daughter, Mrs. Maude Parsons entertained Mr. Snyder's sister, Mrs. Jack Brown of Seattle, Washington, her daughter, Mrs. Alfreda of Minneapolis, and her daughter, Gloria on Sunday. The folks arrived in a new Stinson plane owned by another nephew, Edward Brozelton. Although the pilot maneuvered considerable to find a suitable landing place, a landing place was safely effected much to the surprise of the Snyder family.

30 YEARS AGO: JULY 6, 1950

Miss Jane Hunter was succeeded as grand worthy advisor of the Order of Rainbow for Girls by another Lake County resident, Miss Ila Mae Baker of Waukegan, during the grand assembly at the Sheraton Hotel in Chicago last week.

Mrs. Agnes C. Lippert, local beauty operator, was stabbed to death by her husband, Arthur at their home in Venetian Village Tuesday night. Mr. Lippert was on a three-day leave from Elgin State Hospital for the Insane.

In an attempt to obtain a 40-foot easement over the Scout House and new library grounds for a Main St., entrance to the new Antioch park, Anthony Scully, member in charge of the committee said, "If this is done, the Moose lodge will provide carpenters for the construction of an archway," he said.

Harold Gaston's power boat, the Weedcutter, didn't do so good in the races at Dubuque. It came in last.

10 YEARS AGO: JULY 2, 1970

More than 600 persons were feted last June 14 at the Gander Mountain Inc., open house at their new location a mile south of Wilmet.

Lloyd Pedersen was recently signed as vocalist with the Wayne King orchestra. He has appeared in many productions for the PM&L Dinner Theatre in Antioch.

Illinois Bell's Waukegan manager, Don Amundsen wanted to dramatize his company's contribution to Lake County's 1969 tax receipts. The booty represented $1,346,592 in personal property and real estate taxes and made quite a stack when cash was assembled on a table before Lake County treasurer Sheehan who received it.

Cindy Carney was the model for a dress made by Mrs. Marge Masek and entered in the National Grange Sewing Contest. Susan Hevrdejs and Marge Masek were winners. Angie Maras sponsored these entrants, and accompanied them on the trip.

The Volo Bog is given to the state. Dan Malkovich, acting director of the Dept. of Conservation said that the bogs are delicate plant communities over 12,000 years old.

Infrastructure as a later part of the process. So both the Chamber and the village must be involved from the beginning," he said.

"The present administration will do anything within the parameters of state statutes to effect a workable industrial retention and attraction program. We will take an active leadership role," affirmed Mayor Michael Haley.

Sitting down in committee to do some "hard and fast planning," including an inventory of commercial developments and comprehensive plans for industrial sites should be the next step in getting the industrial attraction ball rolling, advised Schneider.

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

My Goodness, everyone really had a good time last Thursday at Family Night at Williams Park.

I'm glad I wasn't the one that had to clean up all those broken eggs after the contests!

CONGRATULATIONS to Eric Larson on winning the Schwinn bicycle in the recent Antioch Little League Drawing. He certainly deserved it after selling all that cheese and sausage.

Saw Bud Zukowski the other day and he looked so spiffy as he sported the birthday present given to him by members of the Rotary Club, a pair of cuff links that almost resemble two nuts and bolts. You can certainly tell that those Rotary boys are big spenders by the expensive calculator Zukowski also received.

Hardin St. has really been buzzing about the new Mayflower truck parked in front of Rose and Peter Hansen's house.

I hear they just completed a course at Mayflower headquarters in Indiana.

OH MY, I've just been told that Elaine and Gene Rockow, are leaving our fair village to live in Winslow, Illinois, almost 100 miles west, near Monroe, Wisconsin.

Neighbors and friends will miss the Rockows who have lived here for 39 years. Everyone's good wishes go with them.

Speaking of moving, was that a For Sale sign I saw in front of Elaine and John Wirtz's home?

And is that some remodeling going on at the old Maude Sabin home by the St. Pierre's?

WELL BLESS my kimono, reports have it that Beth Kromer will spend her senior year in a high school in Japan.

I wonder if Beth would mind bringing me one of those darling little hibachis when she returns from her world travels.

Whoops! Are those Art Neckerman's trousers flying from the mast of Dick Pad-dock's boathouse?

And what's this about the Rotarians voting Homer White the diver of the year

CONGRATULATIONS to Bill Groeninger who has just ordered a dozen new shirts with Veep monogrammed on the pocket.

It's hard to believe that Tony Mayer, winner of the Antioch Bowl's annual bowling tournament, was able to turn in such a pin-striking performance after not bowling for the last 12 years.

Who was the lovely blond dancing with one of Antioch's most distinguished at the Fireman's Dance? That couldn't be his wife or could it?

Flash! Had coffee the other day with ex-mayor Bob Wilton who let it slip that it was a good possibility that he might file mayoral candidacy papers come next January.

A belated happy birthday to Dixie Sparks who celebrated her 29th on July 1. Was that the second or third time around; Dixie?

GETTING CHURCH MEMBERSHIP—Children gain full membership in the United Methodist Church of Antioch on Confirmation Sunday, June 1, from front left, Kristopher Shepard, Erika Olson, Sandra Cunningham,

INSURANCE INFORMATION

When considering purchasing insurance, would it be worth my time to check out the prices from more than one company for exactly the same kind of policy?

Usually, Companies may offer the same basic coverage but may include special features at an additional cost. However, this special feature may fit your particular situation and be worth the extra cost to you. The most important single factor is to choose a good insurance agent who will be advising you on matters which may affect your security and pocketbook. Also check the company. Has it met state insurance regulations? Compare the companies' premium rate schedules. Also, as with any major purchase, remember cost is not the only important factor. Service from the agent and company are of equal value and importance.

Swim team is improving

The Antioch Swim Team began the 1980 season on June 9 with most of the first two weeks devoted to learning new strokes, starts, and turns.

Unfortunately, the first 3 meets were at different size pools, giving the many new members the problem of swimming 25 yards at Union Grove, 33 yards at Antioch, and 25 meters at Plum Grove.

DESPITE losses in these early meets, Coach Marty Berry feels that with the experience in competition and the hard work at practices the team is improving.

Everyone connected with the team is very impressed with the fine job new Assistant Coach Doug Kozenski is doing here in Antioch.

Even sparklers are dangerous

If statistics from the past can be used to predict the future, Independence Day 1980 will be a day of pain and anguish for at least 50 Illinois families, according to the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness (ISPB).

SOMETIME during the July 4 holiday, Edgar T. Britton, executive director of ISPB, predicts, exploding firecrackers, red hot sparklers, roman candles, and other carelessly handled pyrotechnics will seriously damage the eyesight of 50 or more youngsters.

Britton explains that this is an average compiled over the years by the Illinois Society, a non-profit organization founded in 1916 to fight needless blindness throughout the state.

IN 1979, he says, eye doctors in Illinois reported 62 serious injuries to the Society. In 1978, there were 48 injuries, most to the cornea or "outer window" of the eye.

The toll will be just as high or even higher in 1980 unless parents begin to realize the menace, Britton believes.

A STRICT LAW in Illinois regulating the sale and private use of dangerous fireworks hasn't managed to stop the flow of illegal fireworks or reduce significantly the number of casualties.

Exploding firecrackers cause the most injuries, but sparklers, where the end of the sparkler wire can reach temperatures in excess of 2,000 degrees Fahrenheit, have also caused many serious injuries.

This year, Britton warns parents, ban home fireworks from your holiday plans. "Don't let one explosive moment of fun bring a lifetime of darkness into your family."

Diabetics can eat barbecue

The summer barbecuing season is upon us, with summer's taste treats waiting to tempt us.

People on special diets to control diabetes can have many of these treats also, keeping in mind the following tips: continue to eat at regular meal times, don't skip any meals; become familiar with the correct portion sizes of foods, such as corn on the cob and melons which are often served at picnics and get-togethers; check with the host or hostess to be sure fruits and salads do not have sugar added, and if they do it's best to avoid them; many barbecue sauces have as much as 20% sugar, so instead of the sauce mix cat-sup with artificial sweetener and add seasonings like onion, garlic, mustard and horseradish to taste.

WANT TO know more? A free class is open to the public in the Victory Memorial Hospital amphitheater starting at 6 p.m., Tuesday, July 8.

Diabetics, their families and friends are cordially invited to attend.

A registered dietitian and a nurse will discuss the disease, medications, urine testing, diets and food preparation.

Be counted

The "We're You Counted Campaign" is designed to attempt to insure a 100 percent accurate count in the 1980 Census. If the U.S. Census Bureau is to achieve this goal it is necessary that each and everyone do their part.

Be counted — your failure to do so will result in a loss of approximately $320 per person for your community.

Felter's picnic set for July 5

Felter's Assn. of Felter's Subdivision, Antioch Township, has scheduled its 1980 picnic on Saturday, July 5, from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Enumerators needed

Positions as field enumerators for U.S. Census Bureau are still available.

These positions are normally paid on a piece-rate basis, or hourly, averaging about $4 per hour, and may require an automobile depending on the area worked. If an automobile is required, a mileage allowance of 20 cents per mile is paid. Generally enumerators are assigned close to home.

The job will tentatively last through July or longer. All prospective Census Bureau employees must take a written test, consisting of 54 questions, covering basic numerical, and clerical skills. One hour is allowed to complete the test.

For the testing site and date see below or call 312-473-9490.

Antioch's testing site is at the Village Hall, every Monday at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Woman behind the Antioch man

'Life is an adventure!'

Is the life of a minister's wife much different than that of any other wife and mother?

'Not really,' Says the pert, fair-haired Jo Williams, wife of Rev. Steve Williams of the United Methodist Church of Antioch and mother of two, Mark, 17 and Susan, 18.

'Except for the fact that Steve's on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week, we have our own household and the church is Steve's business.'

What makes one decided to marry a minister?

'I didn't marry a minister,' Jo answers, 'I married a handsome football player.'

This in reference to their days at Cornell College in Mt. Vernon, Iowa, where they met in freshman year.

Jo was born and raised in Galesburg, Illinois. She and Steve, after the typical college sweetheart romance, were married before graduation from the university where she was majoring in elementary education.

The first few years of her married life were spent at home taking care of her husband and then the two children, though being at home meant moving around a lot while her husband attended Iliff School of Theology in Denver, Colorado and continued his schooling while serving as assistant pastor in Pavillion, Wyoming, back to Illinois to Galesburg, then Glenview and Cherry Valley.

Cherry Valley was Steve first pastorate

and during the William's four year tenure there, Jo taught third fourth and fifth grades under a special program that utilized group teaching, a subject which has her enthusiastic support.

The William's became an important part of the Antioch community seven years ago.

'We really like it here, it's a fine place for children,' she says.

Jo is teaching first grade at the Antioch Grade School, a job she obviously enjoys thoroughly although she claims that at times she feels that she is the one being taught.

'I wish I knew years ago what these first graders have taught me,' she smiles.

What do the Williams enjoy together? Getting away from it all with the kids or alone, if it's just a short trip or at best, a week at the cabin they have up north.

Jo is an avid sewer and her love for stitching rubbed off on her daughter Susan who is working at Ericksen's Sewing Center. Both of them make most of their own clothes.

When you ask her if she feels that the children had problems being 'the minister's kids,' she answers that Susan and Mark were raised just like most other kids, just to be good people, and that they never seemed to have too much of a problem with the church identification, rather enjoying it in fact.

Jo's clear, matter of fact manner that is laced with a zest for life, truly indicates that she is looking forward to the next adventure that tomorrow might bring.

When I think about it

Do we all have to like alike?

Are you aware that here, in your own All-American community, there reside many traitors to the American and Antioch idea of summertime?

HOLD ON, don't get excited, their identity is known and they are being watched.

On Orchard St. there are two families, with kids, that have never been, and have no desire to be, involved in the hectic Little League way of life.

Can you believe, they actually prefer to eat dinner together at a reasonable time?

WORST OF ALL, their kids, one boy and one girl, don't even like to play baseball!

And for complete un-Americanism, these wretched parents have no desire to attend games and cheer and jeer the players on.

I bet that you don't even suspect that on Maplewood Dr. there lives a mother who surreptitiously tried bleaching her son's Little League uniform to get it whiter.

JUST OFF of Rte. 173 there is a gentleman that has never attended the Lion's Club Barbeque, using his dislike of chicken as an excuse. An obvious play!

On the north side of town there are two teenagers that have never gone shopping in their pajamas at midnight, during Moonlight Madness.

But that's nothing compared to the lady in Oakwood Knolls who refuses to go anywhere near the downtown area from Thursday to Sunday, during Maxwell St. Days, claiming she is too claustrophobic to fight the crowds of bargain hunters.

ON NORTH AVENUE, we have four people who have yet to appear at McDonald's this season.

But in all fairness, these are only considered borderline traitors since they have promised to take their rightful places in those long lines as soon as their broken legs heal and the casts are off.

IN FELTER'S Subdivision, living right in the midst of all the yards which are properly adorned with various barbeque equipment, can be found a barren yard. Nowhere, on any part of this infamous bit of property, is there any form of charcoal receptacle!

These people have the effrontery to cook their summertime meals on the kitchen store, simply because they prefer meat that is not charred to a delicious black.

It is also on record that these same people actually do not like bratwurst!

Enumerators needed

Positions as field enumerators for U.S. Census Bureau are still available.

These positions are normally paid on a piece-rate basis, or hourly, averaging about $4 per hour, and may require an automobile depending on the area worked. If an automobile is required, a mileage allowance of 20 cents per mile is paid. Generally enumerators are assigned close to home.

The job will tentatively last through July or longer. All prospective Census Bureau employees must take a written test, consisting of 54 questions, covering basic numerical, and clerical skills. One hour is allowed to complete the test.

For the testing site and date see below or call 312-473-9490.

Antioch's testing site is at the Village Hall, every Monday at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Woman behind the Antioch man

'Life is an adventure!'

Is the life of a minister's wife much different than that of any other wife and mother?

'Not really,' Says the pert, fair-haired Jo Williams, wife of Rev. Steve Williams of the United Methodist Church of Antioch and mother of two, Mark, 17 and Susan, 18.

'Except for the fact that Steve's on call 24 hours a day, seven days a week, we have our own household and the church is Steve's business.'

What makes one decided to marry a minister?

'I didn't marry a minister,' Jo answers, 'I married a handsome football player.'

This in reference to their days at Cornell College in Mt. Vernon, Iowa, where they met in freshman year.

Jo was born and raised in Galesburg, Illinois. She and Steve, after the typical college sweetheart romance, were married before graduation from the university where she was majoring in elementary education.

The first few years of her married life were spent at home taking care of her husband and then the two children, though being at home meant moving around a lot while her husband attended Iliff School of Theology in Denver, Colorado and continued his schooling while serving as assistant pastor in Pavillion, Wyoming, back to Illinois to Galesburg, then Glenview and Cherry Valley.

Cherry Valley was Steve first pastorate

and during the William's four year tenure there, Jo taught third fourth and fifth grades under a special program that utilized group teaching, a subject which has her enthusiastic support.

The William's became an important part of the Antioch community seven years ago.

'We really like it here, it's a fine place for children,' she says.

Jo is teaching first grade at the Antioch Grade School, a job she obviously enjoys thoroughly although she claims that at times she feels that she is the one being taught.

'I wish I knew years ago what these first graders have taught me,' she smiles.

What do the Williams enjoy together? Getting away from it all with the kids or alone, if it's just a short trip or at best, a week at the cabin they have up north.

Zion nuclear plant is CLC seminar topic

The controversy surrounding the operation of the Zion nuclear power plant will be discussed at a Community Forum held at the College of Lake County.

Both proponents and critics of nuclear power, in general, and the Zion plant, in particular, will have an opportunity to state their positions and answer questions from the audience during the forum scheduled for Thursday, July 10, at 7 p.m.

Sponsored by the community and continuing education office through the CLC open campus, the forum is offered free of charge as a public service to the community.

The meeting will be held in the Blue Lecture Hall, room A-162, in the main building on the Grayslake campus with seating limited to 150 persons. Because of the space limitation, interested persons are encouraged to register through CLC's admission office from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays.

First come, first served, will be the policy at the door for those who did not register.

Though the question of nuclear power safety has been a topic of national interest for some time, local concern about the Zion plant heightened when Waukegan officials learned of unscheduled releases of low level radioactive gases this spring.

The controversy revolves around the danger of these releases, with Commonwealth Edison and some local officials minimizing the health impact and others questioning the credibility of Edison's interest in the safety of the local community.

Concern over the safety of the Zion plant, its location in a highly populated area, and the spent fuel rods which are stored on the Zion site are all potential topics of debate. Commonwealth Edison officials have continually responded with reassurances on the safety of the Zion operation and insist the dangers are nearly nonexistent and controllable with current technology.

The format for the Thursday evening forum consists of a short presentation by each individual with time for questions from participants and discussion by panel members.

The panel consists of two mayors of local communities with opposite positions on the safety of the nuclear plant. Zion Mayor John Spencer has routinely defended the Zion operation, while Mayor Bill Morris of Waukegan has openly criticized the nuclear plant since knowledge of the unscheduled emissions became public. Linda Scott, the nuclear information coordinator for Commonwealth Edison, will participate as well as Marilyn Shineflug, chairperson of the Illinois Safe Energy Alliance.

The Nuclear Regulatory Commission will be represented by Richard Strasma, with local governmental officials including Gregorio Milan, the administrative engineer for the Lake County Health Dept., and Roger Harrison, director of environmental control for the city of Waukegan. George Stanford, a physicist from Argonne Laboratories will also be participating.

For more information on Zion Nuclear Power Plant: A Community Forum, contact CLC at 223-6601, ext. 334.

Vets pensions to increase

Almost 10,000 Illinois veterans and their survivors will be getting larger Veterans Administration pension checks on July 1, the result of a 14.3 percent increase in the government's cost of living index.

DONALD RAMSEY, director of the VA's regional office in Chicago, said that about 100,000 Illinois VA pensioners are affected in some way by the cost of living index.

Pensions are paid to veterans totally and permanently disabled from circumstances unrelated to their military service, Ramsey said. They are paid also to survivors of veterans who are in need. Unlike compensation paid to those disabled because of military service, pensions are affected by income from other sources.

The 9,817 who will get increases this month, payable July 1 are those who have switched to the "improved" VA pension plan inaugurated by Congress in 1979. The plan links VA pension rates to adjustments in social security payments. Before the change, an individual's pension was subject to reduction each time social security increased.

THOSE PENSIONERS who chose to stay under the pension rules in effect before 1979 will not receive the July 1 increase. They however, avoid the reduction in pension that the social security increase would have triggered before the legislation went into effect. For these pensioners, the 14.3 percent social security increase triggered a similar increase in the maximum amount of income they could receive from other sources and still remain eligible for VA pension.

Pensions for veterans and survivors under the "old plan" remain fixed and payable at the rates in effect in 1978. But those rates are protected against reduction that would otherwise result from cost of living increases in their income from other sources.

RAMSEY SAID "old plan" recipients may request transfer to the "improved" plan at any time.

The agency will carefully review each application to advise applicants to choose the plan which works to their personal advantage.

With the June increase, payable in July 1 checks, a veteran with one dependent and no other income will receive $5,844. For each additional dependent, the added amount is $755 per year.

DENTAL X-RAYS

For a dentist to conduct a complete dental examination without using dental x-rays, is like watching TV with your eyes closed. "Why", you may ask, "can't the dentist use his eyes and trusty mirror to do the same diagnosis?" Because, as the "unsinkable" Titanic discovered, like icebergs, most serious dental trouble is beneath the surface and out of view.

Dental x-rays often reveal beginning decay between the teeth or beneath a filling or at the bottom of a narrow pit or groove in the chewing surface. The amount of bone supporting teeth—that has been destroyed by periodontal disease, the development of root abscesses and cysts, the presence of unerupted teeth or broken root fragments or impacted teeth can only readily be determined by x-rays since these abnormalities are normally hidden from view.

With modern, shielded equipment and high speed x-ray film, only a very small amount of x-ray radiation is required to take a complete set of pictures. It's less than we normally receive from illuminated watch faces. The x-ray camera is one of the dentist's most valuable diagnostic tools.

COSTOFF DRIVES OFF — Pictured above is Kay Costoff as she gets one of those super drives off which helped her to win a prize for the low gross score in the D-Division of the State Bank of Antioch's Womens Golf League last Tuesday. She had a score of 64. Quietly watching, so as not to break her concentration, are from left to right, Henrietta Albergo, Fran LaPlant, and Linda Brown.

Colburn, Zivco, Zeisse and Derler post wins

In some of the tightest super-modified racing of the season at Kenosha County Speedway June 28 point leader Dick Colburn, Muskego, had a clean sweep by posting fast time, winning the fast heat and the 25-lap feature.

Tom Sexton led the first two laps with Dennis Spitz taking over until lap six. Rick Schmidt, using the outside groove, sliced into the lead then and maintained it until lap 17 when defending champion Darrell Dodd took top spot.

Dodd's lead was shortlived as Colburn took the lead on lap 19 and maintained it to the checkered. Dodd, heat winner Gary Dye, Bob Robel and Schmidt rounded out the top five.

JIM MOULIS won a heat and Ron Marish won the semi-feature.

John Zivco, West Allis, won his first race of the season in the modified 20-lap feature. Zivco took the lead on lap nine from heat winner Homer Ansell, with fastest qualifier and current point leader Darv Nissen closing in.

On lap 11, Nissen spun in turn two and coasted down into the path of Bill Shaffer's mount which went over the front end of Nissen's. Neither driver was injured, but both were out of action.

Zivco was followed by Allen Winker, heat winner Bill Kelly, Jim Uttech and Paul Seidler.

IN THE FIRST modified heat which was won by Don Schroff, who also won the semi-feature, Dave Horst went over the wheels of a spinning car and flipped end for end in the second turn. He was uninjured.

Ken Zeisse, Union Grove, won his second 20-lap late model sportsman feature in a row. Point leader Mike Klemko, C.J. Lindholm, Sid Norton and Hank Hovorka rounded out the top five.

The race was interrupted three times on successive laps in the fourth through sixth circuits.

Blood screening slated

The Lake County Health Dept. offers a variety of health care program each week at various community sites in the county.

Blood pressure sessions for adults and immunization sessions for children are available to Lake County residents at no charge.

A blood pressure session will be held at the Antioch Public Library, 757 Main St., from 2 to 4 p.m. on Wednesday, July 9.

No appointment is necessary.

Individuals will be screened for high blood pressure and those with elevated blood pressure will be referred to a physician for medical evaluation. Instruction for diet, medications and other aspects of controlling high blood pressure will be offered to persons referred by their physician. The risk of stroke, heart attack and kidney failure is greatly reduced when an individual's high blood pressure is controlled.

For further information, contact the hypertension program, Lake County Health Dept., 689-6715.

Immunization sessions are held every Monday through Thursday from 1 to 3 p.m. at the Belvidere Medical Building, 2400 Belvidere Rd., Waukegan. No appointment is necessary. A parent or guardian must accompany all children.

An immunization session will also be available at the Midlakes Medical Building, 6 E. Main St., Round Lake Park, on Wednesday, July 9, by appointment. Call 546-6662.

At immunization sessions, children can be immunized against polio, diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, measles, mumps and rubella (German measles).

For further information on the immunization program, call the Lake County Health Dept., communicable disease program, 689-6761.
